MG David Neo

Chief of Army, Singapore Armed Forces

MG David Neo enlisted in the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) in 1996. He is a Commando Officer by vocation, and served his junior command tours in the Commando Formation. He was subsequently Commanding Officer of First Battalion, Singapore Guards, Commander of 2nd Singapore Infantry Brigade and Commander, 3rd Singapore Division. He also served as the SAF's Director of Joint Operations (J3), where he oversaw the SAF's contributions to the national fight against COVID-19. MG Neo attended the Indonesian Army Command and Staff College (SESKOAD) in Bandung, Indonesia where he won both the Best Foreign Student and Best Thesis awards. He is also a graduate of the United States Army Ranger School.

MG Neo held various key appointments in the Ministry of Defence. He was Deputy Secretary (Technology), where he developed key technology, acquisition, procurement and logistics policies. As Future Systems and Technology Architect, he led MINDEF's research and development masterplanning, and advanced defence research priorities. As Head of the Joint Plans and Transformation Department of the SAF (J5) and Deputy Assistant Chief of General Staff (Plans) of the Army, he oversaw Strategic Planning, Capability Development and Resource Management.

MG Neo was awarded the SAF Merit Scholarship and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering (Honours) and Bachelor of Arts in Economics (Distinction) from University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign and a Masters in Operations Research from Stanford University, USA. He was also awarded the SAF Overseas Postgraduate Scholarship and Lee Kuan Yew Scholarship in 2012, and graduated with a Masters of Business Administration as a Sloan Fellow of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

In addition to his military appointments, MG Neo was the Programme Director of the Pioneer Generation Office, and the founding Group Chief of the Silver Generation Office in 2018. He also served as the Chairman of the SICUS committee, overseeing security and spectator management of National Day Parade 2008, and as Chairman of the Show Committee, overseeing the conceptualisation and organisation of the Show Segment of National Day Parade 2014. MG Neo also served as a director on the boards of several agencies, such as Defence Science and Technology Agency, Singapore Polytechnic, Temasek Defence Systems Institute, Advanced Material Engineering Pte Ltd, and Cap Vista Pte Ltd.

PINNACLE AWARDS

Mr Wong Hung Khim

Mr Wong Hung Khim attended Victoria School from 1954 to 1959 in the Tyrwhitt campus. He served as the Chairman of the Victoria Executive Committee (VEC) and Victoria Advisory Committee (VAC) from August 1979 to December 1996, with a few years break in between. During his tenure, Victoria Junior College was set up with the same school song and common features in the badges. Victoria School was also relocated from the Tyrwhitt campus to Kallang Bahru and finally at Siglap Link.

During his 31 years of distinguished public service, Mr Wong helped shape policies in the Ministry of Social Affairs and the Ministry of Labour. He was instrumental in building up major institutions such as the Port of Singapore Authority (PSA), Singapore Telecom (Singtel) and Singapore Bus Service (SBS). As the CEO of PSA from 1979 to 1987, Singapore grew to become the world's busiest port in terms of shipping tonnage. He was also the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Community Development from 1984 to 1987. In 1987, Mr Wong was appointed CEO of Telecommunication Authority of Singapore and he restructured and corporatized the statutory board to become the public listed company Singapore Telecom (SingTel). Mr Wong was then seconded to be the Chairman of Jurong Town Corporation (JTC) from 1993 to 1997. He was also the Co-Chairman of the Singapore-Suzhou Industrial Park Project for the first few years of its inception. In 1996, he received the Honorary Citizenship Award from the Suzhou Municipality of China for his contribution to the project.

Mr Wong used to stress the importance for Victoria to provide Victorians with an "Academic Excellence in Student All-Round Development". This balanced approach ensures that our students will have the necessary social skills to go with their intellectual prowess so that they'll be in a position to contribute to the nation, community, and our alma mater.

PINNACLE AWARDS

Wong Hung Khim Top All-Round Student

This award is the school's highest honour. It is presented to the most deserving Victorian in recognition of his outstanding achievements in curricular and co-curricular areas, distinguished service and leadership, and for embodying the spirit and virtue of a Victorian. The Top All-Round Student also has the honour of addressing his cohort as a Valedictorian.

Dr Ong Chit Chung

Dr Ong Chit Chung attended Victoria School from 1963 to 1968 in the Tyrwhitt campus. During his time in Victoria School, he was a Prefect, Chief Student Librarian, Editor of the student publication, “Fabrik” and Secretary of Glam House. He served as the President of Old Victorians’ Association (OVA) from 1978 to 1980 and was the Chairman of the Victoria Executive Committee (VEC) and Victoria Advisory Committee (VAC) from 1988 to 2008. He gathered round him a Committee of enthusiastic Old Victorians and pushed for the creation of Victoria Junior College (VJC) in 1984. Under his guidance, VJC grew to become one of the top colleges in Singapore. Dr Ong was also the driving force behind the plan to move VS to its present Siglap Link location and proposed the Victoria Integrated Programme (VIP) to the Ministry of Education which eventually led to the Victoria-Cedar Alliance.

Dr Ong was a military historian at the National University of Singapore before entering politics in 1988. He served in the Bukit Batok Constituency for two terms. In 1991, he was appointed Parliamentary Secretary for Ministry of Home Affairs and Labour. He was a Member of Parliament (MP) for Bukit Batok Group Representation Constituency (GRC) from 1997 to 2001 and Jurong GRC from 2002 till his death in 2008. During his twenty years in politics, Mr Ong also served as the Chairman for the Government Parliamentary Committees for Education, Defence and Foreign Affairs.

In memory of his selfless and tireless dedication to his alma mater, the Dr Ong Chit Chung Student Leadership Award is awarded to the best performing student for his service to Victoria School.

PINNACLE AWARDS

Dr Ong Chit Chung Leadership Award

This award is in memory of Dr Ong Chit Chung’s many years of service to the Victorian family. It recognises the Victorian who most embodies the spirit of servant leadership to the school.

Mr Ong Teong Pin

Mr Ong Teong Pin attended Victoria School from 1946 to 1958 (since Primary 1) in the Tyrwhitt campus. He pursued an architectural course at the Singapore Polytechnic. He completed the Professional Diploma Course in Architecture in 1964 and was awarded the Palmer and Turner Prize. He became the Senior Planner at the Planning Department, Ministry of National Development in 1966. He was granted a Colombo Planning Scholarship to do a post-graduate course in town planning at the Civic Design Department, University of Liverpool, UK from 1968 to 1970. On completion of the course, he continued as a Principal Planner at the Planning Department. In 1973, Mr Ong left public service to set up his private practice as an architect and town planner.

A staunch and constant supporter of Victoria School, Mr Ong served as the Chairman of the Victoria Advisory Committee (VAC) from 1985 to 1988. Inspired by his uncle, Mr Ong Eng Lian, who was the first President of the Old Victorians' Association (OVA) in 1941 till the 1950s, Mr Ong had on many occasions with the support of other Victorians, raised funds for the school. He continues to sponsor the annual award to encourage Victorians pursuing the field of Art and Design.

Mr S R Nathan

Mr Sellapan Ramanathan (S.R. Nathan) attended Victoria School from 1937 to 1940 in the Tyrwhitt campus. He is a Singaporean politician who was the sixth and longest-serving President of the Republic of Singapore. Prior to serving as head of state, he had a distinguished 40-year career in public service that took him through the worlds of trade unions, security, and diplomacy. He was first sworn in on 1 September 1999. In 1999 to 2005, he was elected President in uncontested elections. In 2009, he surpassed Benjamin Sheares to become Singapore's longest serving President. His 12 year term ended on 31 August 2011.

Mr Nathan began his career in the Singapore Civil Service as a medical social worker in 1955. In 1962, he was seconded to the Labour Research Unit of the Labour Movement, first as Assistant Director and later as Director of the Labour Research Unit until 1966. He continued as a Member of its Board of Trustees until April 1988.

In February 1966, he was transferred to the Foreign Ministry. He served as Assistant Secretary and rose to be Deputy Secretary before being appointed Deputy Secretary of the Ministry of Home Affairs in January 1971. On 6 August of the same year, Mr Nathan moved to the Ministry of Defence where he was Director of the Security and Intelligence Division (SID). In the Laju incident on 31 January 1974, members of the terrorist Japanese Red Army (JRA) bombed petroleum tanks on Pulau Bukom off the coast of Singapore; Mr Nathan was among a group of government officers who volunteered to be held hostage by the JRA to secure the release of civilian hostages. In 1975, he was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal.

In February 1979, Mr Nathan returned to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and become its First Permanent Secretary until February 1982, when he left to become the Executive Chairman of The Straits Times Press (1975) Ltd, the predecessor of Singapore Press Holdings.

PINNACLE AWARDS

From 1983 to April 1988, Mr Nathan was Chairman of the Hindu Endowments Board. He was a founding member of SINDA, the Singapore Indian Development Association, and its Term Trustee until August 1999.

In April 1988, Mr Nathan was appointed Singapore's High Commissioner to Malaysia, and in July 1990, he became Ambassador to the United States of America, where he served until June 1996. On his return, Mr Nathan was made Ambassador-at-Large and was concurrently Director of the Institute of Defence and Strategic Studies (IDSS) at the Nanyang Technological University. He resigned as Ambassador-at-Large and Director of IDSS on 17 August 1999, and was asked to run for president in Singapore's second presidential election.

"Nil Sine Labore is a very important message, that you may not be the best but with labour, you will succeed. Whether you succeed or fail, it's all because of labour. Making the judgement is yours."

NATIONAL ANTHEM

---

Majulah Singapura

Mari Kita rakyat Singapura
Sama-Sama menuju, Bahagia
Cita-cita kita yang mulia
Berjaya Singapura!
Mari-lah kita bersatu
Dengan semangat yang baru
Semua kita berseru
Majulah Singapura!
Majulah Singapura!

Onward Singapore

We, the people of Singapore
Together march towards happiness
Our noble aspiration
To make Singapore a success
Let us all unite
In a new spirit
Together we proclaim
Onward Singapore
Onward Singapore

Music and Lyrics by Zubir Said

VICTORIA ANTHEM

Victoria In Singapore,
There are other schools we know,
Victoria is something more,
The school that watch'd us grow.

For here we've learnt and striven too,
And played the sportsman's game,
Victoria, we give to you
The honour that you claim.

Victoria thy sons are we,
And we will not forget,
Victoria thy triumphs see,
And victories we share yet.

For others came before and went,
And carried to the world,
Victoria's fame and our intent
To keep her flag unfurled.

Lyrics by J A Frazer
Music by W E Meyer
